Speaker Bios

Katherine Browne, MBA, MHA
Principal at Constellation Consulting

Katherine is an independent consultant working with clients and communities to realize a vision of a health care system that delivers on its promise and its potential. She has over fifteen years of experience driving improvements to the health care system, managing cross-sector alliances, leading teams, and developing strategy and operational capacity. Previously, Katherine served as the deputy director of the Aligning Forces for Quality project and was the managing director of the Hospital Quality Alliance.

Lindsey Alexander, MPP
Senior Project Director of Regional Financing & Investment
ReThink Health

Lindsey is working with our director of sustainable financing to develop financing mechanisms and related diagnostic tools for ReThink Health's partner regions. She has extensive experience in public finance and community engagement, both as a public employee for the Minneapolis Finance Department and as an independent consultant for Lindsey Alexander Consulting. Also, she created financial planning tools and cultivated client relationships as a project manager at Springsted Incorporated, a public sector consulting firm in St. Paul, MN.

Kate Kohn-Parrott, MBA
President and CEO of Greater Detroit Area Health Council

Kate has been instrumental in shaping health care reform at the local and state levels; prior to her appointment at GDAHC, she served as a health care policy advisor to the Michigan House of Representatives and as a health and labor consultant to Eastern Michigan University. Kate spent more than twenty-five years at Chrysler, LLC as a leader in finance, internal audit, and employee benefits management. As Director of Integrated Health Care and Disability, she designed and implemented programs that saved over $400 million annually (on a benefits spend of $2.5 million) and led health and benefits national negotiations with the UAW in 2007—a collaboration that reduced costs and saved thousands of autoworker jobs.
